

Welcome to the Spring 2024 Glenvale Park Community Newsletter

As the warmer weather approaches and days grow longer, we're pleased to share the latest news from Glenvale Park.

From development milestones to community updates, there's plenty to look forward to as we embrace the season of new beginnings and exciting growth.

Get involved

If you'd like to get involved with the Residents' Association or have something you'd like to discuss with the committee, please contact paul.prosser@hotmail.co.uk

f GlenvalePark
t GlenvalePark @ glenvalepark
in company/glenvale-park

For more information about the development, please visit www.glenvalepark.co.uk

Fiona Grady is selected for public art commission

Glenvale Park LLP and NN Contemporary Art have announced Fiona Grady's selection for the public art commission at Glenvale Primary School.

Designed to evoke wonder and individual interpretation, the art will transform the school's foyer and create a vibrant atmosphere with suspended Perspex shapes and transparent vinyl motifs.

Fiona Grady said:

"I'm excited to be creating my new commission 'Polygon Shuffle' for the residents of Glenvale Park. It's a lovely opportunity to design an artwork that connects with the local community and focuses on how to spark the imagination of the young pupils of Glenvale Primary School."

Triangulations – an example of Grady's previous work

Find out more

Click here to find out more about the multi-sensory installation

No Mow May

Throughout the month of May, we're asking residents to join us in 'No Mow May' – a community driven initiative to promote biodiversity.

Contributing to our collective effort to support wildlife at Glenvale Park, a selection of landscapes will be left to grow freely throughout the month.

We encourage residents to join hands in refraining from mowing their lawns, allowing wildflowers that create sanctuaries for bees, butterflies and other pollinators to flourish.

Sports pitches opening soon

The sports pitches at Glenvale Park are scheduled to open this spring.

Anticipating warmer weather in the seasons ahead, we look forward to offering the community the opportunity to enjoy the new football and cricket pitches.

Stay tuned to Glenvale Park's social media channels and website for details on the official opening.

Air Ambulance clothes bank proving popular

The recent installation of a clothing donation bank at Glenvale Park is already proving popular.

Contributions to the bank not only support local sustainability efforts but also help to raise crucial funds for the Warwickshire & Northamptonshire Air Ambulance.

For those who wish to donate, the bank is situated in the car park by Toad Hall Nursery and the Community Centre at Glenvale Park, on Niort Way, Beaumont Road, Wellingborough.

The exact location can be found using What Three Words: name.tracks.fund

Super progress on the local centre

The superstructure for Glenvale Park's new local centre is now complete. The retail hub is set to bring an exciting array of retail outlets to Wellingborough, including a Co-op, Subway, Golden Scissors and beloved local independent coffee chain, Bewitched.

With just two units remaining, suitable for fitness, leisure, office or retail space, we eagerly anticipate the addition of these amenities to our community.

For parties interested in the available spaces, please contact Space on 0345 900 3900 or prop-search.com on 01933 22 33 00.

Visit the website to find out more.

Wellingborough Redwell Walking Football Club celebrates 10th anniversary

Following Glenvale Park's sponsorship of over £1,000, which provided Wellingborough Redwell Walking Football Club with new kits and outdoor jackets, the club has seen tremendous growth and engagement, with record attendance at its weekly recreational sessions and plans for competitive participation in the Northants FA Walking Football League.

As the club prepares to celebrate its 10th anniversary in June, the team hopes to reach past players and extend an invitation to the festivities. If you've been part of the club or are interested in joining, please get in touch to ensure you're included in the celebration.

For more information on Wellingborough Redwell Walking Football Club and its upcoming matches or introductory sessions, please visit the club's Facebook page.

